City & Guilds Medium Risk Entrant & Entry Controller for Confined Spaces: 6160-09

Course Introduction

The aim of this unit is to reflect the national occupational standard for controlling entry and arrangements for working in a medium risk confined space environment. This unit covers both water and non-water industry areas.

This course is for the entry controller/top person who controls entry arrangements for medium risk confined space and working within them.

Course Pre-Requisites

Delegates attending this course should be 16+ years and must be able be physically and mentally fit to withstand the rigorous practical training, confirmed by our fitness statement.

Candidates must be able to understand and speak the English Language.

Course Topics

- Duties of an entry controller
- Pre-Entry procedures
- Preparing & planning to work safely
- Using equipment and relevant tools safely
- Entry into & exit from the medium risk confined space
- Maintaining communication throughout the activity
- Initaiting and following emergency action plans

Course Benefits

The course will provide a detailed understanding of safety requirements when assessing, planning and carrying out work in confined space environments. The course also provides assessment of entrant and entry controller responsibilities when working within confined spaces, keeping individuals and those around them safe. On completion you will achieve Level 2 qualification for entry controller/top person who controls entry arrangements for medium risk confined spaces and works within them.

Assessment Method

Practical observation, short answer, and question paper.

Qualification Expiry

3 Years